In that instance, the officials will have the players line up at mid-court directly across from the opposing player with the same-colored wristband to help the players understand who the new player is that they will be guarding. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in a technical foul, 2 free throws, and loss of possession.
In all leagues the defensive team must drop back to the 3- point line when the ball is in-bounded after a basket or rebounded after a missed shot attempt. Failure to drop back to the 3-point line will result in an illegal defense being called. The first offense will be a warning. After that, the offensive team will be rewarded with 1 free throw and retention of the ball. Coaches need to constantly remind their players of this rule to keep the game flowing. In the 7th-8th boys and 6th-8th girls leagues if the score is single digits the defense may pick up at half court the last two minutes of the game.
